In this series of interactive workshops, participants will unfold the oral storytelling tradition and explore the powerful role that storytelling can play in both supporting and enriching the lives of children, with particular reference to assisting children in care/suffering from trauma.

Skill Bite Objectives:

- Understand how to use stories powerfully and creatively in both formal and informal settings
- Identify the key characteristics / structure of narrative stories such as character, orientation, complication and resolution, and how this relates to the storytelling tradition
- Experience stories from a range of cultures / genres and recognize both the commonalities and distinctions in styles and motifs of storytelling
- Understand the role of storytelling in assisting children in care / suffering from trauma
- Develop a storytelling resource folio which includes the completion of a simple project to encourage storytelling with children
- Develop confidence as they take on the storyteller's role

Suitable Audience:

- Teachers / teacher's aide
- Carers and workers from foster, residential, permanent, adoptive & kinship care
- Family service workers
- Case managers
