

TRACKS TO HEALING

Supporting kinship carers & workers to care for our Aboriginal children

OCTOBER – NOVEMBER 2014

Pilot training

WE'LL BE YARNING ABOUT:

-  The nature of trauma experienced by Aboriginal children, families and communities
-  Aboriginal kinship work and its implications for carers of Aboriginal children
-  The impacts of trauma on the cultural/spiritual, psychological, and physiological well being of Aboriginal children
-  Reading the 'signs' of trauma - how are healthy attachments impacted by trauma
-  Easing the impact of trauma
-  Approaches to healthier attachments
-  Caring for ourselves when children are distressed
