

THE PART-TIME COUNSELLOR

Counselling Skills for Non-Counsellors

Presented by Nick Grainger

Friday, 28 March 2014

You've got their attention in the chair / corridor / car - but what do you say next? This skill bite will explore how to respond to children, young people and adults in a way that demonstrates your understanding. Learn what to say, when to say it, how to say it... and when to say nothing at all.

Skill Bite Objectives:

- To explore context-specific counselling techniques
- To identify strategies for engaging children, young people and adults in counselling conversations
- To understand the ethical considerations of counselling practice
- To explore a range of communication techniques relevant in counselling engagements
- To understand the basis of a healing conversation
- To identify important moments and how to deal with them
- To explore useful responses in difficult conversations

Suitable Audience:

- Carers and workers from foster care, permanent care, adoptive, and kinship care
- Family service workers
- Case managers
- Child protection workers
- Teachers
- Student welfare/wellbeing professionals
