

The Truth About Lying

The Truth About Lying: Facts to help you deal with fiction

Presented by Nick Grainger | Friday 21 August 2015

Hands up those who have never told a lie before...liars!!! The reality is, nearly all children and young people (and yes, adults) have told a lie at some time. However, being able to rely on what others tell us is such an important part of a healthy society. This seminar will help you to determine the underlying causes of children and young people's lying and provide strategies that will help you to successfully intervene.

The objectives of this seminar are to:

- To learn about the various forms of lying presentations
- To understand how to determine the underlying cause/s of the behaviour
- To understand the most effective intervention strategies regarding lying
- To be able to translate the theory of managing lying behaviour into the practice of caring for traumatised children and young people
- To take away some clear dos and don'ts regarding lying from a trauma-based perspective

Suitable Audience:

- Carers & workers from foster, permanent, residential, adoptive & kinship care
- Family service workers
- Child protection workers
- Case managers
- Youth Justice
- Teachers / teacher's aide
- Student welfare / wellbeing professionals
