When children are 'misbehaving' what should we do?
Punish, discipline, use consequences or give them an ice cream?

Seminar Objectives:

- To reflect on what children need when they break the 'rules': Punishment? Discipline?
- To discover what the difference is
- To explore whether children / young people acting 'badly' should always be confronted
- To understand the differences between natural and logical consequences
- To develop skills in maximising the use of consequences as a behaviour modification strategy
- To learn how to stay calm when all around is chaos

Suitable Audience:

- Carers & workers from foster, permanent, residential, adoptive & kinship care
- Family service workers
- Child protection workers
- Youth Justice
- Teachers / teacher's aide
- Student welfare / wellbeing professionals

Gregory Nicolau is the company Director and Consultant Psychologist of Australian Childhood Trauma Group. He has a 30 year career working with the most marginalised and vulnerable children, young people and families in our community and the agencies, organisations and education facilities who support them. He has an exceptional reputation dealing with complex cases and situations in a compassionate and focused manner. He's transparent in dealing with staff and organisations and able to challenge when appropriate. He enjoys supporting people to deliver the best outcomes for infants, children and young people and is an experienced trainer, facilitator and case supervisor.
